Board of Elections The City of New York

Introduction

...A similar bipartisan arrangement of over 316 deputies, clerks and other personnel insures that no one party controls the Board of Elections. The Board appoints an executive staff consisting of an Executive Director, Deputy Executive Director and other senior staff managers charged with the responsibility to oversee the operations of the Board on a daily basis. Together, the executive and support staffs provide a wide range of electoral services to residents in Manhattan, The Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island.

The Commissioners of Elections meet every Tuesday at the Executive Office, in addition to the special hearings, legislative sessions and specific issue-oriented meetings (electronic voting, election legislation, labor management, rules and budget) during the calendar year.

Mission Statement

The Board of Elections in the City of New York, as provided under Section 3-200 of the New York State Election Law, is responsible:

1. To conduct fair and honest elections, from local to federal levels;
2. To enfranchise all eligible New Yorkers to register to vote and to practice those rights;
3. To conduct elections, certify the canvass and to retain the official records;
4. Voter outreach and education.

Briefly stated, this means:

First, the preparation of the ballot for Primary, Special and General Elections to the extent that all vacancies for public office and party positions may be filled.

Second, that qualified voters may exercise their right to franchise and that every opportunity be given to voters to execute that right and to vote for whom they choose.

Third, that the votes of the electorate at Primary, Special and General Elections be properly canvassed and that a true count be given for each candidate voted for.

Finally, that we make every effort to inform and educate the voting public of their rights as a voter and also to reach out to all Americans to instruct them in the voting process.

The following pages of this report will illustrate some of the duties as classified in the above synopsis.

President's Message

Frederic M. Umame
President

I wish to thank the people of the City of New York for allowing me to serve as one of the ten Commissioners of the Board of Elections in the City of New York. During 2009, I had the opportunity to serve, as President, and with Commissioner Julie Dent, who served as Secretary, to act as the bi-partisan Executive Committee of the Board.

During 2009, the Board conducted three city-wide election events in connection with the selection of New York City Mayor, Comptroller and Public Advocate. The Primary occurred on September 15, 2009, the Run-off Primary was held only two weeks later on September 29, 2009 and the General Election on November 3, 2009. The General Election determined the composition of the entire New York City Council, as well as the City's top three elected officials. Many other important positions such as District Attorney and Judgeships were also selected in the Primary Election and filled in the General Election.

In addition, the New York City Board of Elections conducted three special election events involving three Queens City Counsel races, the Bronx Borough President and two Bronx and one Queens Assembly seats.

The people directly involved in running these election events are dedicated public servants who work tirelessly year round to deliver the free, open and fair elections for the people of our city. The Board expands on election days from about 350 full time employees to 35,000 citizen poll site workers who for little pay and long hours help preserve our Democracy at its most basic level.

During this busy year, New York City took all the steps to select a new voting system which will be utilized for many years to come. We are bidding farewell to the old reliable mechanical voting machines used since the 1960's. Next year we will be implementing the new optical scanners which will read voter marked paper ballots.

Our major concern is funding for our agency. Our employees are paid about a third less than employees at comparable New York City agencies. Furthermore, we are structurally underfunded every single year. For 2009, no budgetary allocation was made for the Runoff Primary or any of the Special Elections that came up during the year. In addition, the current budget drastically cut the bone and sinew of our agency, making our difficult job impossible. This is especially true in a year where we need to implement an entire new voting system and educate the voters and 35,000 poll workers about the upcoming changes.

On behalf of the Commissioners, I want to thank the Executive Management, employees and poll site personnel for their exemplary work in conducting this year's election events. All of the Commissioners are looking forward to a busy and historic 2010.

We visited public and private school providing school auditorium programs and individual classroom instruction, neighborhood block associations, health fairs and local civic organizations.

LEGAL NOTICES

In accordance with New York State election law, legal notices were placed in newspapers one week before the election. These ads contained the names, addresses and political party affiliation of each candidate running in every election throughout the city. Ads were also placed the day before the election and the day of the election that contained the date of election as well as the hours that the polls are open. We also placed a full page ad informing the public of the availability of the Ballot Marking Device at their respective Poll Site.

BETH FOSSELLA
Coordinator, Voter Registration

As the Coordinator of the Voter Registration Department, I am, along with my staff, responsible for all activities that pertain to registering people to vote in the five boroughs of New York. This includes:

- Overseeing the Boroughs' responsibility to maintain the records of all registered voters. The total number of registered voters in the City of New York for 2009 according to the New York State Board of Elections Data Base is 4,462,657. These figures are run twice a year on March 1st and November 1st of each year. The MIS Department runs a report every month and the total number of registered voters from January 1, 2009 to December 2009 was 4,418,981. This includes both active and inactive voters. These numbers are provided from the MIS Department, starting with January 1, 2008 to December 2008.
- Reaching out to all eligible voters in the City of New York and making them aware of the importance of being a registered voter and how much their vote counts. This is accomplished thru:
 1. conducting registration drive at various community activities (street fairs, work fairs, community organization meetings, senior citizen community centers, etc.)
 2. visiting the high schools within the city informing students who are going to be eligible to vote, how important it is to be a registered voter
 3. distribution of voter registration material to the public. It is to be noted that all voter registration material is translated, in accordance to law, in the four languages – English, Spanish, Chinese and Korean.
- Providing and making sure that all registration material is updated in accordance with New York State Law.
- Sorting all registration applications according to Borough, time stamp all registration applications that are filled out by potential voters according to the code which they fall under, keep a tracking of the coding of the registration application, and then distribute to the borough office.
- In 2002, Congress passed and the President of the United States signed into law the "Help America Vote Act" (HAVA). This was the means by which the federal government committed to fund sweeping election reforms which would enhance the voting process in this country. Previously, a potential voter was not asked to provide a means of identification when filling out a registration application. Once HAVA took effect, identification was required. Effective January 1, 2006 all first time voter registrations within the State of New York has to provide the same information heretofore requested of voters who registered by mail after January 1, 2003. In order to accommodate the voter, the registration application was re-designed to provide a box where this HAVA ID information was required. Those who did not provided the necessary identification information, would receive a "First Time Voter Letter," asking them to provide the identification information. If no identification was sent by the time of the election, the voter would be asked to provide this information at the poll site, and if he/she still did not provide it, would not be allowed to vote on the machine, but would have to vote by affidavit ballot. Ordering and tracking all voter registration material both in the Manhattan Facility where voter registration is stored, as well as in the General Office.

- Making sure that all Voter Registration material is updated and translated into the four languages required by law, English, Spanish, Chinese and Korean.
- Providing and updating all voter registration information that must be put up on the Board of Election's web page. This information is done in English, Spanish, Chinese and Korean.

CODE 9 – AGENCY REGISTRATION

In May 2000, the New York City Council passed legislation (Local Law 29) which requires that 20 City agencies must provide voter registration forms to their clients, contractors, sub-contractors (literally anyone with whom they come in contact) in the performance of services, mailings and whatever other transactions take place on a daily basis.

The agencies that are in the category of Local Law 29 are:

The law requires that the Board of Elections supply these agencies with all the material they will need in the performance of these tasks, i.e., registrations forms, display boxes, booklets, posters in all the four languages that are required by law (English, Spanish, Korean and Chinese). The total number of Code "9" registration applications that were given out in 2009 was 140,000.

CUNY (THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK)

CUNY requested 109,000 Code "D" registration forms to be delivered to the main offices of the CUNY schools. The "Code D" registration applications, contain a small box at the upper right hand corner of the registration application with the letter "D" in it. This enables the board to track how many of these registrations are processed. This, too, is mandated by law.

INFORMATION NOTICES

In August of each year the Board of Elections sends out Voter Information Notices to all Active and Inactive Registered Voters. These Information Notices give the voter all the necessary information regarding the upcoming elections as well as informing the voter where his Poll Site is and what district the voter must vote at.

Many voters had commented in the past that their Poll Site had been changed and they were not aware of it, so that when they went to vote they had to vote at another Poll Site.

In 2005, the Information Notices were re-designed to include notice to the voter that he/she had a Poll Site change. The space on the Information Notice indicating the change of poll site was BOLDED.

- The Normal file – the poll site remained the same

- The Bold file – the poll site has been changed

The total number of Information Notices sent out to the voter in August 2009 was 4,010,155

In August of 2009, Information Notices:

If the Confirmation Notices is returned Undeliverable, then the voter is made INACTIVE. The Inactive code is X. This voter goes from an Active to an Inactive (A to X) status.

COORDINATORS are placed in polling sites with multiple Election Districts (EDs) and serve as the managers for the poll site to troubleshoot any problems and ensure that voters receive courteous, prompt and proper service.

INFORMATION CLERKS are placed at sites with multiple EDs to help direct and guide voters to their correct voting districts and/ poll sites by using street directories and poll site lists.

DOOR CLERKS are assigned to polling places with alternate handicapped accessible entrances where the doors cannot remain open or assistance is required.

INSPECTORS and POLL CLERKS are the backbone of the Board’s Election Day workforce. There are four INSPECTORS at each Election District or board, two enrolled Democrats and two Republicans – a system of “checks and balances” that is required by New York State Election Law. POLL CLERKS are similarly divided and are mainly used to help speed along the voting process in EDs where there are more than 750 registered voters. The poll clerks collect the cards from the voters and adjust the party lever on the side of the voting machine to activate the proper Primary ballot that reflects the political party enrollment of the voter. These individuals may also stand in for Inspectors when there are vacancies. If a voter is in need of assistance on the BMD, they assist the voter.

INTERPRETERS assist voters with limited English proficiency at poll sites in various neighborhoods in New York City and are a major component of the Board’s Language Assistance Program. The Board provides Spanish, Chinese (Cantonese/Mandarin) and Korean Interpreters in targeted areas in conjunction with the plan based on recent census data.

A.D. POLL SITE MONITORS are a group of specially trained Poll Workers that monitor an Assembly District on Election Day. They are rapidly dispatched to address and correct any problems at poll sites within their districts.

While the Coordinators, Inspectors and Poll Clerks are required by law to be both a citizen and registered voter, the Information Clerks, Interpreters and Door Clerks do not have such a requirement. County Committee applicants make up a great portion of the total complement needed to staff the polls but thousands of positions still must be filled. To this end the Board trains and assigns poll workers recruited from various sources, including the City University of New York and numerous civic and advocacy groups. Poll worker applicants also submit forms obtained from the Board’s phone bank, web site and the Borough Offices or by indicating interest in serving when completing their voter registration applications.

POLL WORKER TRAINING AND INITIATIVES

During 2009, eighty four Adjunct Trainers conducted Poll Worker training by conducting 1,927 classes at 70 sites throughout New York City. These four hour classes train the poll workers to use the Poll Worker Manual, visual aids, various voter information forms and materials used in elections. Also included in the training session in 2009 in addition to a demonstration of the mechanical voting machine was a demonstration of the AutoMARK ballot marking device. In total, the Board trained 34,864 poll workers in 2009. We trained 6,567 poll workers to assist voters on the BMDs in addition to their myriad of other responsibilities on Election Day. We also produced laminated materials on using the BMD that were available at all poll sites.

The Poll Worker Manual contains a section concerning diversity and incorporates the customer service training from the poll worker classes. The Board also provided VOTE-NOTES, a quick reference tool the Poll Workers use on Election Day. The Board’s poll worker training video is accessible on our web site, enabling poll workers to log on and brush up on procedures before an election. Poll site signage provides voter information and assistance in all four mandated languages. These multi-language materials include the “How To Use The Voting Machine” stickers located in the voting machines, laminated handouts and the NYS Voters Bill of Rights.

NURSING HOMES PROGRAM

The Board of Elections provides special services to Nursing Care Residential Facilities and their occupants. During the 2009 Specials (4), Primary, Runoff and General Elections, Board staff made 357 visits to Nursing Home facilities and delivered 18,053 absentee ballots to residents of these facilities.

2009 ELECTIONS

There were 127,043 positions established for the Special Queens Council District Election, Special Bronx Borough President Election, Special Bronx & Queens Member of Assembly Election, Primary Election, Run-off Primary Election, and General Election. There were 122,320 applicants who were assigned and worked one of these elections. There were also 4,202 standby poll workers that were dispatched and worked during the 2009 elections.

EDO HAVA DEPARTMENT

This department helps to educate voters, Adjunct Trainers & Poll Workers on the BMD. These staff members organized and performed numerous demonstrations of the BMD throughout the year in all five boroughs of New York City. They also created a “BMD Poll Clerk Guide” for the Poll Workers and a similar voter guide. They made an instructional video for the Poll Workers on the set-up, opening, closing and trouble shooting on the BMD. They were instrumental in training and testing both the Adjunct Trainers and the Election Day stand-by poll workers on the BMD. They trained numerous Poll Workers at the “BMD Learning Center,” training them “one on one.”

Voting Equipment Operations Department

JOHN P. O'GRADY
Chief Voting Machine Technician

In 2009 the Shoup 3.2 Mechanical Voting were used for three major events Primary, Run-Off Primary and General Elections. There were 19,457 machines deployed during these elections and over 1,700,000 votes cast. There were only 22 machines that were replaced and only 5.5% of the machines required mechanical repairs during the Primary, Run-Off Primary and General Elections.

In 1963 the City of New York began using the Shoup 3.2 Mechanical Voting Machine. Over the last half century over 100 million votes were cast on the Shoup 3.2 Mechanical Voting Machine. At the end of 2009, 7,700 Shoup 3.2 Mechanical Voting Machines were packed up and relocated to storage to make way for the new Poll Site Voting System.

Our Fleet Management system continues to be enhanced to more efficiently record all Election Day trouble calls; dispatches staff and record the resolutions of all calls. During 2009 over 1,900 Election Day calls were recorded. The Board continued to improve its response time for Election Day trouble calls.

The Ballot Marking Devices were prepared and deployed, one per poll site (1,349) for the Primary, Primary Run-Off and General Elections. This year the Board of Election technicians were responsible for setting up, testing and deploying two different methods of voting (mechanical voting machine and ballot marking devices).

Facilities Operations

NICHOLAS SQUICCIARINI
Facilities Manager

In 2009, the Board acquired a new facility in Brooklyn 5112 2nd Avenue, to be the home of the new voting machines for Brooklyn, and space in 4312 2nd Avenue, for storage of the old lever machines for Manhattan, Bronx, and Queens.

Brooklyn's old lever machines will remain at 645 Clinton Street, the current voting machine facility for Brooklyn, along with Staten Island's old lever machines. The remaining facilities 450 West 33rd (Manhattan VMF), 66-26 Metropolitan Avenue (Queens VMF), and 1780 Grand Concourse (Bronx VMF) will receive renovations, air conditioning, electric, infrastructure upgrades to be ready to receive the new voting machines in 2010.

Procurement Department

STEWART LIBERMAN
Agency Chief Contracting Officer, CPPB

The Procurement Department function is to oversee and process all of the Board of Election contracts for goods and services to ensure compliance with the New York City Procurement Policy Board Rules (known as the PPB).

The PPB was developed to ensure that all city agencies' procurement practices are uniform in application; and provide fair and equitable treatment to all persons doing business with the city.

VENDOR DATABASE

The Board continues to expand its database of vendors. The board continues to investigate ways to increase competition for goods and services and cost savings for the agency. The Board also avails itself of the many State OGS contracts where cost savings can be maximized.

VENDEX CONTRACTOR PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Board of Elections' contracts are evaluated annually and several are reviewed twice a year. The evaluation provides positive response to vendors, and helps the Board quickly identify vendors that did not fulfill their contractual responsibilities.

MONITORING CONTRACTORS

Since the inception of this program, the Board's contractors' damages to Board-owned equipment continues to decrease significantly. This monitoring continues to save the Board money and improves the overall quality of service from contractors.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM FMS PROCUREMENT PROJECT

The department actively embraced the new FMS 3 system, which was rolled out January 2010 with many new and enhanced capabilities. All the department staff has gone through training and will continue to train as other changes and enhancements are created.

Electronic Voting Systems Department

LUCILLE GRIMALDI
Director, Electronic Voting Systems

The Electronic Voting Systems Department (EVS) is responsible for technical support for the Board's computerized voting systems. These currently include the central scanning and tabulation system for affidavit, emergency and absentee ballots and the management system for ballot marking devices. EVS prepares these systems for an election by populating them with an election's specific parameters and ballot elements. EVS also prepares tests and coordinates the canvass functions related to these systems.

The affidavit, emergency and absentee ballot central scanning system, the Sequoia TeamWork system, has been in use since its introduction in 2000 and was used in every election conducted in 2009 – three Special Elections in the Spring and then the Primary Election, a Special Election, the Primary Runoff Election, and the General Election in the Fall. In addition, the ES&S AutoMARK Ballot Marking Device (BMD) system introduced in the Fall of 2008 continued to be used to configure BMDs for every poll site in the 2009 elections.

For all of the Elections in 2009 combined, just over 1.9 million ballots were cast. Almost 70,000 of these were absentee, affidavit and emergency ballots that were processed by the central scanning system. About 3,000 were BMD ballots although not all of these had been marked by a BMD.

In addition to administering the central scanning system and BMD system, the EVS Department continued to play a central role in the form of project management and overall development and coordination efforts for the transition to the planned citywide pollsite scanning system.

By March of 2009, the Board's Evaluation Team had completed their evaluation of the two systems submitted for New York State Board of Elections certification. Their evaluation report was submitted to the Commissioners. Also in March, SysTest Labs, the company performing certification testing on the two systems, received re-accreditation and resumed certification testing of the proposed systems. The Commissioners decided that they would wait for certification before they selected the new system.

Two members of the EVS Department served on the Evaluation Team. In addition, members of the EVS Department worked on design and development tasks for an anticipated pollsite scanning system, so that principles and procedures developed generically could be tailored and applied to whichever system Commissioners would select after State certification. This design and development work was carried out through the structure of approximately twenty Workstream Groups covering work areas such as Election Management System (EMS) Development, Pollsite Voting System Development, Election Day Procedures Development, Security Development, Pollworker Training Development, Voting Machine Facilities Readiness, Poll Worker Recruitment, Public Information and Education, Ballot Definition and Proofing, Canvassing of the Ballots and many more. Members of the EVS Department also worked with a group that developed a detailed project schedule in preparation for implementation in 2010.

The New York State Board of Elections certified two new pollsite ballot scanning systems and a ballot marking device on December 15, 2009. The Commissioners are expected to choose the system for the Board of Elections in the City of New York in January of 2010.

Personnel and Records Management

DOROTHY DELAYO

The Personnel Guidelines must be updated as needed and all rules and regulations are enforced through the disciplinary process by the Director of Personnel. Investigations and hearings are conducted as required. Disciplinary hearings are conducted and actions taken under direction of the Commissioners of Elections. Determinations of such hearings varied from termination to various levels of probation and/or suspensions.

The job responsibilities also require substantial travel around the city to visit all offices and voting machine facilities as needed, at times with only a moment's notice.

The Director of Personnel also serves as the Records Management Officer for the agency. These responsibilities include monitoring the storage and disposal of all records in all media and responding to Freedom of Information requests.

Finance

JOHN WARD
Finance Officer

The work of the Finance Office, probably uniquely, is not really keyed to the Election cycle. Rather than having a "busy season" the Finance Office does a fairly consistent volume of work at every point in the year.

The Finance Office is divided into two sections:

1) PERSONNEL SERVICES (PS)

Personnel services are the payroll section. Payroll data is accumulated from the five borough offices, Voting machine facilities and the General office and is processed. There is a constant liaison between the various responsibility centers. There is also a natural overlap between the work of the P.S. section and the board's Personnel Department.

2) OTHER THAN PERSONNEL SERVICES (OTPS)

The O.T.P.S. section is the accounts payable section. Approved bills are accumulated from the various managers and paid. Finance works closely with the Agency Purchasing Department.

The Finance Department prepares reports and handles special projects as required. Finance plays a key role in all aspects of the Agency's budgeting process. In addition the Finance Office drafts letters and testimony for Management for those subjects that fall within our sphere of responsibility. The Finance Officer accompanies and assists management when testimony relative to fiscal matters is given.

The Finance Department provides the fiscal infrastructure for the smooth running of all day to day operations of the New York City Board of Elections.

Management Information Systems Department (MIS)

STEVEN FERGUSON
Director, MIS

OVERVIEW

The Management Information Systems Department (MIS) operates the Board's Data Center and Help Desk. MIS also maintains and supports mission critical applications such as System Elect (S-Elect), the framework for the Candidate Processing and Election Support System (CPESS) and the Poll Worker Requirements and Support System (PWRSS), and Maptitude for district maps as well as the standard office applications. In addition, the Department is responsible for the Board's Phone Bank Interactive Voice Response System (IVR).

DATA CENTER

MIS maintains system backups on mass storage devices and DLT tape cartridges for backup of all files. Updating and correcting of voter information in the AVID voter registration system is performed on an ongoing basis. The department has provided necessary programming and training internally.

The MIS department continues the use of the Help Desk System. This system tracks all incidents and assigns them to appropriate staff for resolution and closure. Staff of other departments has been very satisfied with this system to resolve their MIS-related problems. The Board continues to work in conjunction with the Department of Information & Telecommunications Technology (DoITT) for web site hosting and to augment our phone bank during peak elections cycles. An IT infrastructure upgrade program is in progress.

PHONE BANK

Our voter hotline, 866-VOTE-NYC, has been a great resource since its inception and continues to aid thousands of callers. The amount of calls increases steadily a few weeks prior to Election Day and surge on Election Day. The calls then begin to decline following Election Day. Inquiries concerning registration, accessibility and absentee applications are just a few of the questions posed to our call agents. A poll site locator feature added to provide information thru the IVR system continues to be very useful.

INTERACTIVE VOICE RESPONSE SYSTEM

The Interactive Voice Response System (IVR) continues to aid callers during busy periods and after hours. The system is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and gives the public direct access to registration data in all four languages. Enhancements to the system, including text-to-speech were implemented in 2009. Further enhancements are planned for the coming year.

PRINT SHOP

The Print Shop produces large volumes of regular weekly mail, Party Enrollment Books for all political parties, street finders, National Change of Address (NCOA) notices and counter copy. All of these were produced on schedule despite the demands of the 2009 election cycle. Poll list books for Special Elections are also produced in-house by the Print Shop. MIS and the Print Shop meet regularly with Xerox Business Systems (XBS), the equipment vendor.

MIS DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

The MIS department expanded the S-Elect and AVID systems in 2009. These included both changes to existing applications and new development. These changes were dictated by expanded user requirements and new election directives.

AVID III continued to develop additional features in response to HAVA and NYS requirements, and management's request to design and implement an absentee ballot fulfillment and tracking application (BATS). MIS evaluations of the proposed NYS Registration Document indicated an AVID work screen impact which may require redesign in 2010. Testing on the AVID III Poll Book production was done in parallel with selected 2009 election events in preparation for 2010 implementation.

S-Elect continued adding new features as dictated by additional user and election requirements. These requirements ranges from additional reports and data analysis request to modifications in the Facilities and Poll Worker applications. Addition of facility readiness features was in response to BMD requirements and preparation for expected requirements for the new voting machines.

S-Elect was migrated from Visual Basic to C#, a more advanced programming system. This change upgraded the platform for S-Elect and made it consistent with other major systems such as AVID. This effort included extensive testing. All the major election events in 2009 were successfully run under the new version.

In 2009 the requirements and preliminary design features were developed for three major new applications Fleet II, Call Center II and the Document Control System. Critical modules of these applications will be implemented in the first half of 2010 with other features secluded for implementation in 2011. In a number of these applications the final design is dependent on the final specification of the new voting machines.

Hardware & Systems Software – MIS continued version upgrades of all its servers and storage arrays. Further roll-out of desktop workstations with Windows XP operating systems and widescreen monitors was performed. We also continued to improve our Exchange (Email) and security systems. Further upgrading of our network configurations and security were also part of our infrastructure upgrading.

The Disaster Recovery (DR) system (equipment and software) has been operational and is ready to be moved to the new permanent DR Site in Queens scheduled for 2010. All network facilities and interconnectivity transfers at The DR site have been completed.

Phone Bank

DANIEL LAVELLE
Phone Bank Supervisor

The Board of Elections' Phone Bank is an inbound call center with two locations. The Manhattan phone bank has a staff of up to 40 operators and the Staten Island phone bank has up to 20 operators to handle calls citywide during peak election season. The phone bank is operational with a reduced staff throughout the year to accommodate any voter requests and is staffed with members who can handle calls in English, Spanish, Cantonese, Mandarin and Korean. These operators handle a diverse range of calls, ranging from inquiries concerning a voter's registration status or poll site location to information concerning their elected officials. The phone bank system has an interactive component that allows members of the public to retrieve information after hours and on weekends. As the first line of communication between the Board and the voting public, the phone bank staff receives training on various aspects of Board operations to ensure that they are able to accommodate the voters' requests for information.

The phone bank operators answered 93,763 calls from the public in 2009.
